

Subject- English

Class -5th

Chapter -2

The wise pigeon

Introductory questions

1. What would you do if your friend does something that doesn't suit you?
2. Would you also do the same with him?

Introduction

This is a story about Pigeon and his family and a monkey.

Through this story we should realize that what happens when anybody Travels others.

Word meanings

Explanation

There is a pigeon and his family and A monkey lived in a mango tree the pigeon had a wife and two children. Every morning the pigeon and his wife used to go out to find food.

There also lived monkey his name was Kallu it true that it was very powerful it often called with the birds on small things all the birds were afraid of the monkey. But everybody at the tree could not dear to object him.

The pigeon family did not like the monkeys and friendly behaviour.

The pigeon said that it would get respect if it we have recently. The monkey did not like any suggestions of the pigeons.

As both pigeons used to go out to in search of food one day when the pigeons came back they found its children and an unconscious manner and their nest was destroyed.

But the pigeons silently work on their nest they build the nest all over again.

Now the pigeon alone went in search of food and its wife took care of children and nest.

When in the evening the pigeon came back to the tree it saw that the monkey was suffering in pain.

No 183 had gone to see the monkey the pigeons wife said that it was good and that the bad monkey learn a lesson now. It would realise what happens when anybody troubles others. But the pigeon stopped its wife that it should not speak like this.

The pigeon asked about its health it as the monkey that why was it in the pain the monkey was ashamed of his behaviour it was moved by the pigeons concern is told that it had a throne in its leg and it pained badly. The pigeon pulled out the throne. The monkey fight instant relief it went off to sleep. The next morning all the birds were surprised to see the sudden change in the monkey's nature. Now the monkey was meeting nicely with everyone at the tree and chatting with the birds.

Exercises

1. Give antonyms of the words
2. Fill in the blanks
3. Match the columns
4. Question answer

Homework

Write an application to your headmaster for two days leave.